B.P.A.C Trains 20 Candidates

Express News Service

Bengaluru: The Bangalore Political Action Committee (B.P.A.C) on Friday presented 20 trained candidates of various political outfits and independents contesting the August 22 BBMP elections.

B.P.A.C Chief Executive Officer Revathy Ashok said the participants have been trained for the past nine months. “During the programme, they were equipped with theoretical knowledge after which they were asked to take up community projects,” she said. Three candidates from BJP, one from Congress and JDD, to Independents and five from Loksatta Party attended the training.

B.P.A.C secretary K Jain said it was high time that parties started considering candidates with a clean track record. “The real impact of the training will be seen in the years to come,” he added.

Subbaiah from Radha Krishna Temple Ward
MANIFESTO

Subbaiah has always been motivated by the desire to enhance the community around him by his vision to create a corruption-free, citizen friendly community.

A successful architect for past 12 years with Masters Degree from Indian Institute of Science, he has been a resident of Sanjay Nagar from his childhood. An alumnus of some of the prestigious institutions in the vicinity such as M. S.Ramaiah, MES Kishora Kendra and Daftodils School, he honed and nurtured his leadership and organization skills right from his academic days. He served in various leadership roles throughout his growing up years - as a school captain, as President of NASA-India and as Honorary Secretary at the Indian Institute of Architects-Karnataka.

He has had formal training in Civic leadership through the BClip program of BPAC and is currently pursuing courses in Public Policy and Urban Planning.

Subbaiah has never been shy of taking up responsibility on behalf of the community around him and has been a good leader as well as a team player as circumstances demanded.

He is currently contesting the BBMP election from Ward 18-Radakrishna Temple Ward as an Independent candidate and would like to request your valuable vote in his favour.
